PRINCETON HIGH SCHOOL PRINCETON, INDIANA

As our parents might have dressed in 1872—Posed by Marcia Morris and Charles Hickrod.

75 YEARS OF

REMINISCENCES OF ROBERT ARCHER WOODS

Class of 1877

D. Eckley Hunter returned to the Princeton Schools for the third time in September 1871. This time as Superintendent. He had just graduated from Indiana University. He established the Graded School system—grades from one to seven with a three year high school. It was installed at the opening of the school year in September, 1871.

When he was first connected with the schools in 1860, he attempted to form a partial grading, setting up a two year Primary, a two year Intermediate, a three year Grammar or Academic course, with a sort of High School—but it was only a make-shift system, without heads or tails, by 1871.

I remember being shifted from one room into a second and directly thereafter into a third, before I was finally anchored in what was to be the fifth grade. The authorities had to sort of "feel" where each student properly belonged.

I entered the High School in September, 1874. Miss Lizzie Horney was Principal during my first and second years; and Thomas G. Alford, during my third year. Miss Horney was a crabbed old maid, stern and unrelenting, and a great disciplinarian. Professor Alford was a swell teacher, liked by his pupils and a favorite everywhere. Later he became Professor of Mathematics in Purdue University and held that position until death. My Class was 1877. The first was in 1872.

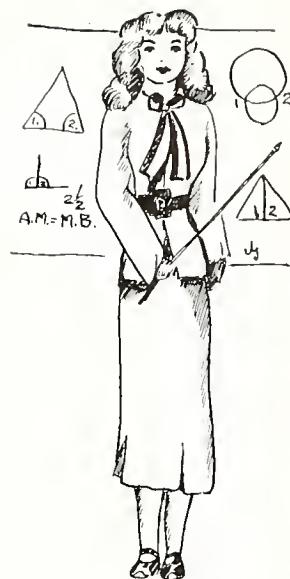

The courses I studied were: 1st year—Grammar, Arithmetic, History, Spelling, Physiology. 2nd year—Grammar, Spelling, Algebra, History, Civics, Literature. 3rd year—Geometry, History, Botany, Astronomy, Chemistry.

To gain admission to Indiana University I had to study Latin on the outside. I studied under Mr. Arthur P. Twineham and the Rev. William H. McMasters, pastor of the U. P. Church. Twineham had just graduated from Indiana University, 1876.

Boys, in those days, were simply dressed, wearing white shirts, coat, vest and trousers, and dark high shoes, laced or buttoned. There were no overalls, slacks, shorts, or out-hanging shirts, gaudy sweaters, or crazy jackets. Soft felt hats were worn; there were no bareheaded specimens. One never saw a boy running around in his shirt-sleeves.

Girls, likewise, were plainly dressed in calico or gingham mostly. Few wore wool skirts, as that would have been thought extravagant. The dresses were usually belted at the waist, with rather loose flowing skirts, down to high shoe-tops. Shoes were high, laced or buttoned. Small hats, sailor fashion, or nubias, were worn. Nothing at all fancy or stylish. Slacks, shorts—never!

As to sports, one played a game of baseball known as "Rounders" in which there was one set of fielders and three batters. When a batsman went "out," he moved to left field and the fielders moved up towards the batter and the catcher went in as batter. Or perhaps one played a game of marbles known as "keeps." This was played on a spot about four feet square, with a board back-stop back of the ring, two side or dead lines, and a "taw" about three feet in front of the ring. Each player put in a "comma." In shooting, the player knuckled-down on the "taw" line. He "kept" all he knocked out of the ring. A player usually shot from an angle, so his "taw" would not lodge inside the dead lines and thus become a target. To hit a "taw" thus lodged ended the game, with winner taking all.

MABEL E. TICHENOR

July 5, 1882—September 18, 1947

THE GALLANT HEART

The gallant heart is still;
The tortured body, worn and wasted,
Lies at last in calm repose.
Things temporal have passed away,
And immortality begins.

A priceless heritage is left,
To be remembered ever—
Endless devotion to duty,
Compassionate understanding,
Wisdom and justice,
And the zest for living fully.

Now comes eternal recompense—
The glory of the morning stars,
The golden streets, the alabaster walls;
Haunting melodies—sweetly familiar,
Yet strangely new—
Presences, long lost, now near
And once again beloved;

The gentle touch of Jesus' hand,
The wonder of God's
Own welcoming smile,
His voice, what ecstasy to hear:
"Well done, dear heart, come in."

—EDNA WALKER.

THE MABEL E. TICHENOR MEMORIAL FUND

A new scholarship fund has been established in Princeton High School in memory of Miss Mabel Tichenor, our principal for many years. Gifts from faculty members and from several organizations in town have created this fund from which loans will be made to worthy graduates of Princeton High School to further their education. We hope to honor Miss Tichenor's memory in this manner because she personally helped many students to complete their education, both in high school and in college.

A member of the Class of 1948 will be the first one entitled to make use of this loan.

Representing the three first graduates of Princeton High School, Isabel Blair, Sallie Farris, and Lizzie Mauck. Posed by Marilyn Holle, Patsy Hicks, and Clara Deffendall.

JUNIOR SENIOR PROM

CLASS HISTORY

FRESHMAN

Oh Happy Day! On September 7, 1944, we, the Class of 1948, entered Princeton High School. We were one hundred sixty-three rather bewildered students, as we were pushed around all day by the upper classmen and frantically searched for the right classes at the right time. One consolation was that we weren't the only new persons at high school for there were several new faculty members. They were Miss Perry, Miss Webb, Mr. Antonini, Mrs. Garrett, Mrs. Maxam, and Mr. Johnson.

Our class sponsors were Miss Mary Lois Taylor and Mr. Pittman, and they soon had us selling wrapping paper and greeting cards to raise the class funds.

Those students we chose to represent the class in the Student Council were Sue Hillman, Jean Phillips, Jerry Burton, Fred Wright, Jerry Bishop, Sue Redenbacher, Peggy Gwaltney, and David Woods.

Some of the braver boys in the class went out for football—Jerry Burton, Gilmore Douglas, Arthur Warren, David Lawson, Paul Crooks, Richard Carter, Jim Hunt, Harry Puckett, Pete Colvin, Bill Hart, and Charles Mair.

Those members who represented us in basketball were Joe Stoll, Charles Hickrod, David Woods, Joe Graham, Fred Wright, Gilmore Douglas, John Cummins, Jerry Burton, and Roy Hamblen.

On the baseball team were Jerry Burton, John Cummins, and Pat Byrne.

Bonnie Hitch became a drum majorette.

During this school year the George Field Air Forces gave a program in the gym. This was enjoyed by all of the students in P.H.S.

Pete Colvin was one of those student managers, who painted army shoes bright red with initials on the toes in white. These shoes were very much in evidence at all of the games.

In January we welcomed thirty-five mid-term students who came to P.H.S. from Lowell.

It was on May 8, 1945, that the war in Europe ended, and all of Princeton High School celebrated by taking the day off.

In the Freshman Composition classes Miss Walker had everyone bring his hobbies to exhibit to the class, and some of these, such as Sue Redenbacher's collection of Toby jugs, were very interesting and beautiful.

There was a scrap drive held, with Miss Taylor's room as headquarters, and everyone worked as hard as he could to contribute his share.

The freshman girls were initiated into the Girl Reserves and each girl was required to wear her hair in pigtails, clothing on wrong side out, no make-up, and an onion around her neck.

The traditional initiation was held for the boys!!!

We also sponsored a movie, "Blondie and Dagwood", which helped to increase the class funds.

SOPHOMORE

Soon the summer was gone, and we again entered P.H.S., but this time we were no longer green freshmen, but seasoned Sophomores.

New faculty members were Mrs. Morrow, Mr. Walker, Mrs. Moore, Mr. Downey, and Mr. Dyer.

This year our Student Council members were Adam Lathom, David Woods, Pete Colvin, Arletta Williams, Patsy Hicks, Jerry Burton, Marilyn Holle, Joyce McDonald, and Wilma Hill.

Three members of our class, Patty Anderson, Patsy Hicks, and Helen Stevens, became student librarians.

Joanne Lynn and Joyce McDonald joined Bonnie Hitch as drum majorettes.

The members of our class who went out for football were Pete Colvin, David Lawson, Barney McGowan, Harry Puckett, Charles Mair, Paul Crooks, Bill Hart, James Wolfe, and Richard Carter.

The sophomore girls elected to serve as attendants to the Football Queen were Peggy Gwaltney and Bonnie Hitch.

Joe Stoll, Charles Hickrod, and Jerry Burton represented us very well in basketball this season.

On March 18 we lost one of our classmates, Mary Wilderman, in a tragic accident, in which Sue Hillman was also seriously injured.

'48 CLASS

We also had an outstanding track team this year. Some of the sophomores on the team were Fred Wright, David Lawson, Pete Colvin, Allen Mossman, Gilmore Douglas, Bob Edgar, Joe Stoll, Bob Smith, Adam Lathom, and Bill Hart.

The Girls Reserves sponsored a Holly Hop at Christmas. Certainly everyone remembers the holly and the gaily decorated gym, but most of all the mistletoe that was hanging all around the dance floor.

We left school at the end of that term with a very jubilant feeling, because we knew that when we next returned to P.H.S., we would be upper classmen, and this was just what we had been looking forward to for such a long time.

JUNIOR

In September, 1946, we again returned to Princeton High School and were glad to see all of the familiar faces and surroundings after the three short summer months of our vacation.

Some of the new faculty members were Mr. Weist and Mr. Daubenspeck. Miss Anna Kreige resigned during this year, after teaching at Princeton High School for quite a number of years. We could say, "A job well done."

This year we chose Jerry Burton, Marilyn Holle, Mary Hughes, Pete Colvin, Bob Harrison, Dick Carter, Delores Board, Harry Puckett, Sue Redenbacher, and Ann Belcher as Student Council members.

Those juniors on the football team were Bill Colbert, Billy Bob Carithers, Gilmore Douglas, Paul Crooks, Bob Harrison, Harry Puckett, Bill Hart, Pete Colvin, Barney McGowan, David Lawson, Dick Carter, Charles Mair, Joe Graham, Bob Smith, and Max Gray.

Again this year Bonnie Hitch and Peggy Gwaltney were elected attendants to the Football Queen.

Drum majorettes for this year were Mary Hughes, Jean Phillips, Marietta Hollen, Joanne Lynn, Joyce McDonald, and Bonnie Hitch.

Student librarians were Peggy Gwaltney, Dolores Board, Arletta Williams, Helen Stevens, Patsy Hicks, and Patty Anderson.

Junior members of the basketball team were Joe Stoll, Jerry Burton, Charles Hickrod, Fred Wright, Gilmore Douglas, Bob Edgar, and John Cummins.

Members of our track team this year were Fred Wright, Bob Edgar, Don Edgar, and David Lawson.

Peggy Gwaltney was elected Miss Princeton for the christening of the C. & E. I. train, the Whipporwill. Her attendants were Joyce McDonald, Marilou that there was only one more year left for us in high school.

SENIOR

In September we, the graduating class of Princeton High School, returned to school for our final year.

There were now one hundred twenty-six of us, since several of the students had been transferred to other schools or left school. Some were—Dona Boger, Robert Melton, Betty Jo Woods, Jack Harris, Tom Harris, Monzelle Riggs, Maxine Ivey, Della Mitchell, Arthur Trowbridge, Margaret Hobson, Ann Driskell, Sharon Collene, Juanita Walker, and John Hale.

When the football team was organized, some of the senior members were David Lawson, Captain; Bill Colbert, Pete Colvin, and Bill Hart.

Mr. Schneider, Miss Mason, and Mr. Vanes were new faculty members.

Dolores Board was crowned Football Queen in a very lovely ceremony at Lowell Field.

Our basketball team won state-wide recognition this year. Seniors were Joe Stoll, Jerry Burton, Charles Hickrod, Bob Edgar, Fred Wright, and Gilmore Douglas.

Officers of our class were Marilyn Holle, Joe Stoll, Arletta Williams, and Fred Wright.

Our class play, "You Can't Take It With You," was presented in April. The leading parts were played by Jo Ann Young and Pierce Jerrell.

At a very impressive ceremony the Honor Society held an induction of new members. Six seniors, Ann Belcher, David Lawson, Martha Pegram, Bob Edgar, Carol Harris, and Don Edgar were new members.

On the baseball team were Johnny Cummins, John Hart, Jerry Burton, and Charles Hickrod.

The Junior-Senior Prom was held on May 14, and the gym was very gaily decorated for the Mexican Fiesta, by the Junior class, who were our hosts for the evening.

Everyone had a very happy time!

On the evening of May 25 all of the seniors attended a gay Cotton Hop, which was held at the Country Club.

Baccalaureate services were held on May 23, 1948, in the high school gym, and at last that great stepping-stone in our lives, Graduation Day, was before us.

Thus ended our high school careers, and with a feeling of humbleness, we left Princeton High School, as the graduating class of 1948.

—Patty Hoke, Mary Ellen Greek,
Doris McDermott, Bill Colbert.

HISTORY . . .

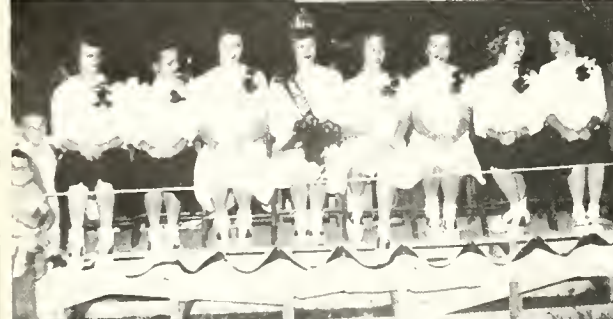

Ritchie, Bonnie Hitch, Carol Field, and Marietta Hollen.

Again this year we lost one of our classmates, Billy Bob Carithers, as the result of a few days illness.

Also during this year members were appointed for the National Honor Society. Those from the junior class were Pierce Jarrell, Adam Lathom, Pete Colvin, Emma Lou Ashby, Harry Puckett, Peggy Gwaltney, Sue Redenbacher, Arletta Williams, Marilyn Holle, Ella Sloan, Patty Hoke, Marcia Morris, and Doyne Hayden.

The time of the Junior-Senior Prom was growing near. To lead us in the task, we chose our class officers, who were Marilyn Holle, Arletta Williams, Pete Colvin, and Fred Wright. One of the problems confronting the class, was the question of how to decorate the gym. It was finally decided to decorate it as the deck of a ship. Everyone had a wonderful time, and we all have many happy memories of the prom.

At the end of our junior year we had a rather sad feeling because we knew that we had had one of the happiest years in our school lives, and also

SEPTEMBER

On that scorching morning of September 3, with our heads high and our spirits low, we mopped our brows and began our sentence of nine long months. For the first time we were "Sophisticated Seniors" with Miss Taylor as our sponsor. The halls were overflowing with bewildered freshmen who had just a slight tinge of green. Early in the month we looked down the halls to see queer characters which seemed to have fallen from Mars, but we were really astonished when we found out they were girls being initiated into the Girl Reserves. "B-E-A-T Washington," was the cry on September 12 at our first football game of the season. The Tigers held them to a 0-0 score. On September 15 the Seniors, making an attempt to raise money for the yearbook, had a stand at the Princeton Farms' Sale. The great Rubinoff honored us with his presence on September 19. This was one of the highlights of September. "Red" Hill, "D. L." Board, Marilyn Horn, and Irene McKinney were chosen this year's yell-leaders. They really proved themselves worthy at the Vincennes game—even though we were beaten by a score of 13-7. Our famous high school band in red and white uniforms displayed its talents at this, our first home game.

OCTOBER

The brilliant reds of the school sweaters blended with the gold and brown of the falling leaves as we shuffled our way to school amid the smell of smoking bonfires. Our attentions now turned to the selection of a football queen, Delores Board, dressed all in white, received the crown and traditional kiss from the acting captain, Pete Colvin. The team played its best for the queen, beating its opponent, Huntingburg, by the score of 28-6. On October 21 the first in the series of Talk of the Hour programs, "The Master Singers," was presented by the Red-path Chautauqua in a very interesting program.

SCHOOL

School was dismissed for Teachers' Association on October 23-24. We loafed while our teachers studied. Ah! Revenge is sweet! Some one must have had it in for the team for on October 30 for the bus carrying the team to the Bosse game was side-swiped. Luckily no one was injured. October 31 the Student Council sponsored a Hallowe'en movie-dance. It was a real thriller with plenty of spooks and Bela Lugosi.

NOVEMBER

November brought reddened cheeks and noses and cold frosty mornings. Major Fielding, on the Talk of the Hour program on November 4, gave an interesting discussion on the United States and Russia. However his talk was interrupted by a fire in the boiler room, but no great damage was done either to the talk or the building. November 7 brought the football game with our old rival from across the Wabash, Mt. Carmel. November 11, came with waving flags, as we were dismissed for Armistice Day vacation. After weeks of preparation the Juniors presented their play, "Junior Miss," and it was really quite professional. Orchids to the Admiral! On November 21, our basketball team opened its season with a victory over Mt. Vernon on their home floor. School was "vacated" on November 27 for Thanksgiving vacation, and we all dreamed of a golden-brown turkey with all the trimmings.

DECEMBER

On December 2, we shouted for joy when our team defeated Jasper. The football team may have been gone but not forgotten for they were honored by the F.H.A. at their annual banquet. The Student Council presented a series of movies and personal appearances. The first program was presented by the Messick Bell-ringers on December 15. On December 19 school was dismissed for Christmas Vacation. On December 25 Santa Claus came to town and everything was merry until December 27 when we suffered our first defeats by both Reitz and Bosse at the Blind Tourney at Evansville.

JANUARY

On January 5 we trudged back through the snow to take our places in Miss Saupert's study hall. Since this was the Week of Prayer, the Ministerial Association presented a very interesting speaker. On January 6 we were again defeated by Bosse, our first defeat in our scheduled season. Another Talk of the Hour program was presented by an Englishman who gave entertaining characterizations of Dickens's characters. On January 16 we really found how dumb we were when the semester ended and we were given our cards. We defeated our first Evansville team when we played Memorial here on January 20. On January 28 we ordered our graduation invitations and cards—the end is really in sight!

FEBRUARY

February came in with a flurry of snow. February—full of great men's birthdays, comic valentines and, above all things, basketball tourneys. On February 7 our young aspiring musicians enter the District Solo and Ensemble Contest at Evansville. With plenty of stiff competition eleven of our entries won first. On Friday 13 (black cats, beware!)

CALENDAR

the Junior Class held a valentine movie-dance. The Rural Youth entertained with a square dance exhibition after which we all tried. The second in the student series, a movie, "Music in the Sky," was presented in Mr. Fougny's room with a capacity crowd every showing. A great achievement! The Evansville jinx seems to be broken! Princeton won the Courier Dope Bag by defeating Reitz here on February 14. Our team did not lose a single game on our home floor. Benny Coomer broke Dennis Horn's previous record of 249 points in a single season. On February 17 as a result of their achievements the team was honored by the Lions' Club at a banquet. On February 20 we met the Central Bears at their den and literally clawed them to pieces. The score was 87-64. Those boys were really on the ball. On February 21, the eleven who won first at District Solo and Ensemble contest went to Terre Haute for the state contest. Four came back with firsts—Harry Puckett, "Boston" Wallace, Carol Sue Harris, and Irene McDonald. On February 23 we were visited by Ralph Melville, who gave us an interesting exhibition of the art of glass blowing. On February 25 we made our way excitedly to the Sectional Tourney. February 26 brought the famous Elk's Chanters who entertained us royally. The final game of the sectional was played on February 28 with Princeton the winner as that grand old month of February passed us by again.

MARCH

March came flying on a gust of wind. It brought with it many happy times for us Seniors whose time for fun in PHS will soon be at an end. March 6 brought the regional amid yells of "Let's Fight!" But our luck had turned, and we were beaten by Central in the final game. On March 12 the Rural Youth again brought to us fun with square dances at the F.H.A. dance. Swing your partner! March 16 was greeted with tapping feet as the band gave a concert in the gym in preparation for the District Band Contest and strains of melodies floated up from the Music Room as the choir went through its paces. On March 17 a navy representative spoke to the Senior boys about careers in the navy. We may have some admirals before we know it! On March 18 after weeks of study and preparation, Miss Saupert's civics classes held both the Democratic and Republican Conventions in the gym. We went through formalities and also had a few unplanned-for arguments. The basketball team was honored at a sumptuous banquet prepared in their honor by the F.H.A. Those girls will really make good wives. School was dismissed on March 26-29 for Easter Vacation. Everyone put on his new "duds" and went to church.

APRIL

April came with its welcome showers. The days were longer and warmer. Brightly colored cotton dresses and shirt sleeves were very prominent around the halls. The band, with their bright red and white uniforms and polished instruments, and the choir with their somber black robes and golden voices tried their best at the District Band and Choir Contest on April 3 at Huntingburg. They received a "first" in everything. On April 22-23, we Seniors presented "You Can't Take It With You." It was really fun to give and everyone enjoyed it. On April 29 the grade schools presented a May day program in the gym, under the direction of Mrs. Ray Caniff.

MAY

Spring came and the young man's fancy turned. New couples were seen everywhere—in the halls and on the streets. The girls added spring flowers to their shortened hair-dos and everyone got the fever—spring, that is. On May 7 a Music Festival was held in Mt. Carmel. Peggy Gwaltney represented our band in the Parade of Queens. It was really wonderful to see and to hear more than seven hundred musicians playing under one conductor. The Juniors tried for weeks to create a Junior-Senior Prom to surpass all proms and by May 14 we agreed that "The Fiesta" was second best to ours anyway. Everyone knew by that time "with whom you were going" and "what your formal was like." All our best talent was displayed at the annual Melody Hour on May 20-21, which was both melodious and entertaining. The Baccalaureate was held on May 23 and there was more than one wet eye in the audience. The senior "Cotton Hop" was held on May 25 at the Country Club. The Class Will and Prophecy really got the laughs. At last, the long awaited day had come—Commencement on May 26. Take four years of hard work plus a lot of good fun and you'll get just what we were—smiling seniors, ready to take our place in the ranks of citizens of our country.
